

I urge you to vote against the proposed rules changes regarding ownership rules. More diversity in ownership leads to more information and more viewpoints presented to the American people.